

Rightside Group (NAME) – A Quote And A Chart

Date: August 13, 2014

A quote and a chart, presented without comment.

With the two million total registration mark approaching for all new gTLDs, uptake for this program has been exceedingly strong overall. Most of our gTLDs have met or beat expectations to date. Internet users are voting with their wallets and their clicks, acclimating to a world in which specific, relevant domains support the development of meaningful online identities.
